

The Blue Ridge Spinners and Weavers Guild LLC was started to provide a forum for sharing all aspects of fiber art with friends...from raising animals to spinning, felting, knitting, crocheting, rug and lockerhooking, weaving and more. The Guild Bylaws state our purpose is to be dedicated to enhancing the standards for excellence in fiber arts, educating our members and the public through presentations at meetings, seminars, and technical demonstrations and assisting members in marketing

Membership in the BRSWG LLC is open to all persons interested in learning more about fiber arts, educating others about fiber arts, or networking with other fiber artists, keeping in mind that the steadfast rule is: “You have to be nice.” Meetings are generally held the last Wednesday of the month except that we do not meet in June, July and December. Please check the web site for meeting and program locations.
